

“Greater Efficiency Today, Blue Skies Tomorrow”

Manuel F. Lizcano, Historian

The First Alamo Christmas

Reported in The Squirrel Cage of October 1968 of the September minutes:

“There was a discussion on a proposed Christmas party for members, guests and wives in lieu of the regular December meeting. President Sommerville appointed a committee of bob Kotzebue, Jr. and Joe Rohats to investigate the possibilities and report at the next meeting”

The following 27 Members were present:

Sam Paschal	S. B. Paschal Co.	Charles Troilo	Todd-Ford, Inc.
Sam Harper	S. B. Paschal Co.	Don Holland -	Holland Equipment Co.
Charlie Rudloff	Alamo Refrigeration	Frank Hogan	Hogan Mechanical, Inc.
Luke Sommerville	Guarantee Plumbing	Wayne Bates	Honeywell
Joe Rohats	Todd-Ford, Inc.	w.R. Fincke	Langhameer-Fincke-Hall
Kave Kern	Schuchart & Associates	Howard Decker	Jud Plumbing
Terry Moore	Kotzebue Distributing Co.	Brian Johnson	Dunham-Bush
Jon Ford	Todd-Ford, Inc.	James Powell	Powell and Roberts, Inc.
Dan flurry	Todd-Ford, Inc.	Luther Schulze	Beretta, Greenslade & Assoc.
Doyle Adams	Honeywell	William Allen	Southwest Research Inst.
Billy Stigent	Alamo Refrigeration	Bob Kerrigan	Owens Corning
Bill Moore	W.A. Moore Engineering.	R.J. Cotter	Tezel and Cotter
Charles Pfister	Hogan Mechanical, Inc.	Bob Kotzebue, Jr.	Kotzebue Distributing
John Ford	Todd-Ford, Inc.

The following four guests were present:

Jim Whitehead	Honeywell	Richard Powell	- Powell and Roberts, Inc.
George Pinson	- A.G.Pinson Engineering Co.	Jess Roberts	- Powell and Roberts, Inc.

Reported in The Squirrel Cage of November 1968:

FLASH

Your Alamo Chapter, ASHRAE is going to have something different this year – a get-together with the wives. In place of the December regular meeting, there will be a CHRISTMAS/NEW YEARS’S Dinner-Dance on Friday, Dec. 27, 1968 at the Petroleum Center Club on Loop 410.]

The cost will be $12.00 per couple for current members and $15.00 per couple for non-members. This includes a seated dinner, ALL drinks, an dancing to a combo. You can even bring some non-member friends if you so desire.

So, mark your calendar now and tell your wife about it, arrange for your baby-sitter, and get set for the biggest blast of the year.

If you are not there, we will gossip about you.

Reported in The Squirrel Cage of January 1969:

The Alamo Chapter ASHRAE Christmas Dinner-Dance held December 27, 1968 at the Petroleum Center Club.

Attendance: 50 Drinks: Strong & Very Strong Food: Excellent. Music: Very Good

The Rest is History